Welcome from the Chairs

On behalf of the Florida Diversity Council, we welcome you to the 2012 Orlando Women in Leadership Symposium- "Realizing Our Greatest Success."

We are extremely fortunate to have such an amazing group of female executives who will share their unique perspectives and successes on how they have made an impact within their organizations and community.

In each session, you will learn best practices and knowledge that will motivate and inspire you to become leaders in your organizations and surrounding communities.

We strongly encourage you to collaborate and share best practices with one another. It is our hope that you will take the insights shared with you today and utilize them for your own personal and professional development.

The Florida Diversity Council appreciates your attendance and the time you have taken to invest in your future and the Symposium as a whole. We would like to give special recognition to our Co-Title Sponsor, Wyndham Vacation Ownership; our Gold Sponsor, RYSE Magazine; our Silver Sponsor, Wyndham Orlando Resort; and Bronze sponsor, KPMG. We would also like to thank our corporate partners, volunteers, staff, and members. Without your dedication and continued support, this event would not be possible.

Welcome from the National Diversity Council

Dennis Kennedy
Founder & CEO, National Diversity Council

We are excited to welcome you to our 2012 Orlando Women in Leadership Symposium hosted by the National Diversity Council. This great event offers an opportunity for you to observe, learn, network, and hear different perspectives from a diverse mix of executives who have made the climb up the “corporate ladder.”

The theme for today’s symposium is “Realizing our Greatest Success.” You will gather a wealth of knowledge, experience, and expertise from some of the best female executives speaking on topics that will address the personal and professional challenges faced while successfully rising to the top in their respective organizations.

I encourage you to take the initiative to meet new colleagues, talk openly about today’s topics and exchange ideas. It is my hope that your experience today is rewarding and allows you to gain some insight to reflect on your own goals and status in an effort to help catapult you to the top in your own career development.

We sincerely appreciate your attendance today in support of the Women in Leadership Symposium and the National Diversity Council. I would like to thank all of our corporate sponsors, planning committee members, program participants, and volunteers. Without each of you, this event would not be a success.

WELCOME AND INTRODUCTION OF PANELISTS

8:50am - 9:15am

GIVING AND RECEIVING: SUPPORTING ONE ANOTHER IN BOTH DIRECTIONS

Darla Morse - Chief Information Officer, SeaWorld Parks & Entertainment

Women are often lauded for our natural ability to give to others and to community. But, we often overlook the value of being open to really receive offers to help us move forward in our careers. By giving to others through mentoring and by actively participating in organizations that promote our shared success, we need to remember to remain receptive to reaping the rewards that come our way.

9:15am - 9:40am

NETWORKING OUR WAY UP: ALWAYS FINDING WAYS TO CONNECT

Linda Moore-Jason - Attorney, Businessperson & Global HR Leader

Building stronger and more stable relationships through networks benefits us both professionally and emotionally. Those relationships or connections help bolster our confidence and provide important sources of support when needed. As successful female leaders, we make networking a priority ensuring that we not only continue to make new connections but also maintain existing relationships.

9:40am - 10:05am

BEYOND THE BOX: LETTING GO OF PRECONCEIVED BARRIERS AND FEARS

Emily Ingram - SVP of Organizational Effectiveness, Wyndham Vacation Ownership

Becoming successful leaders requires that we let go of our preconceived ideas of what stands in our way. By letting go, we can transform external barriers into bold possibilities. And, by recognizing and moving past our fears, we can become leaders who succeed well beyond expectation and have a dynamic, positive impact on those around us.

Schedule of Events

10:05am – 10:20am BREAK

10:20am – 10:35am QUESTION & ANSWER SESSION I

10:35am – 11:00am BALANCING LIFE AND WORK: HOW DO WE DO IT?
Annette Dennig - VP of Strategic Accounts, Walgreens

Today's female leaders are exploring new territory with regard to how we integrate our lives with our work. Balance now means taking guilt-free ownership of a robust life that energizes us well beyond a solid presence at the office. Claiming a valid stake in our lives can actually be the most rewarding step we ever take toward profound success.

11:00am – 11:25am LEADERSHIP BEST PRACTICES: WHAT IT TAKES TO LEAD IN TODAY'S WORLD
Beth Weagraff - SVP, Florida Hospital

In today's age of the internet, where we have immediate access to an overwhelming amount of information, female leaders need to understand the value of a thoughtful "media diet." To make the best use of our precious time, we need to sharpen our focus and critically analyze relevant information. By taking such initiative, we can enhance our ability to communicate effectively, avoid biased thinking and excel as leaders.

11:25am – 11:40am QUESTION & ANSWER SESSION II

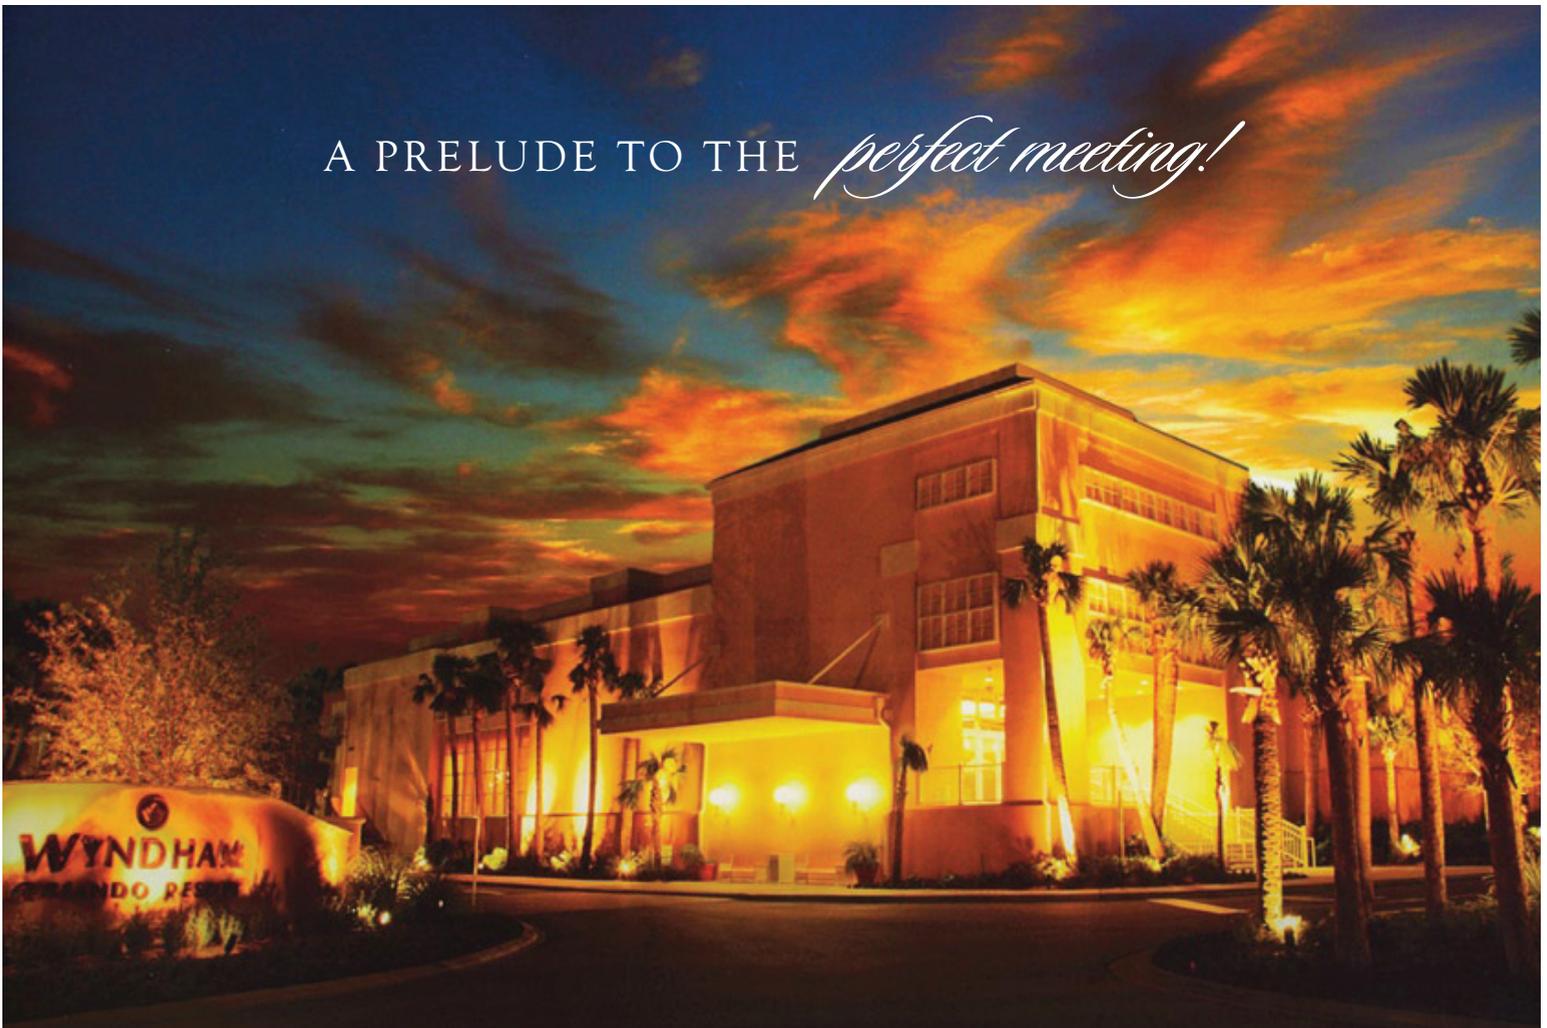

11:40am – 11:50am CLOSING REMARKS & RECOGNITION OF SPONSORS
