

June 4, 2015

Professionals Attend the 2nd Annual San Diego Veterans Summit

SAN DIEGO, CA – The California Diversity Council hosted the 2015 San Diego Veterans Summit in effort to develop and enhance military veterans professionally. The event was held on May 28th, 2015 at Coleman University, 8888 Balboa Avenue, San Diego, CA. 92123.

“This year’s veteran summit provided an opportunity for open dialogue between professional leaders and former veterans as they look to educate, encourage and inspire. This event is one way to bridge the gap between potential employees and employers so we can get veterans acclimated to the workplace,” said Dennis Kennedy, Founder and CEO of the National Diversity Council.

The event provided an opportunity for veterans, and company representatives to come together in an educational forum to hear from fellow veterans and professional leaders as well as learn some of the most-effective best practices regarding veteran hiring, transitioning into a civilian workplace along with professional development opportunities. The Summit Agenda included two (2) panel discussions: one designed for veterans and one designed for employers.

The California Diversity Council would like to thank the speakers, sponsors, volunteers and attendees for helping to make this year’s San Diego Veterans Summit a success.

About the California Diversity Council

Organized in 2009, the California Diversity Council (CADC) is committed to fostering a learning environment for organizations to grow and leverage their knowledge of diversity. Through a variety of events and programs, the CADC serves as the premier resource for diversity best practices and leadership development in the state of California. It is currently comprised of 5 advisory boards: San Diego, Los Angeles, San Francisco/Bay Area, Silicon Valley, and Orange County. A new advisory board in Sacramento will be added during the fall of 2016.

More information about the California Diversity Council is available at www.Californiadiversitycouncil.org.