FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Inaugural Washington Women's Conference Recognizes The Top 20 Business Women of 2016 and Provides Tools for Success

Seattle, WA -- The Washington Diversity Council, in conjunction with the National Women's Council, is hosting the Inaugural Washington Women's Conference on February 3, 2016. The theme for the conference is "Women as Game Changers: Orchestrating Business Success Today and in the Future."

"Our goal during this conference is to explore the role and impact of women as game changers in business," said Dennis Kennedy, Founder & Chairman of the National Diversity Council. "We will discuss women's unique contributions as leaders and their opportunities to orchestrate positive outcomes for future business success."

At the conference, Washington's Top 20 Business Women of 2016 will be honored for their achievements. These women reached the top of their profession and are respected and successful leaders within their organization. They drive change, innovate and inspire others to succeed while contributing to business growth and the strategic direction of the organization.

This annual conference focuses on professional development, community, networking, entrepreneurship and women's health. It gives women a tremendous opportunity for growth and development. In addition, the conference serves as a dialogue for women in different professions and industries. Through the extensive concurrent sessions offered at the conference, attendees will gain knowledge on the tools necessary to advance in their careers.

Registration for the Washington Women's Conference is currently ongoing and can be completed at: <http://wawomensconference.com/2016/>. Contact Kelsea Haught for more information at kelsea.haught@nationaldiversitycouncil.org.
