Top Female Business Professionals Share Keys to Success at 2016 Chicago Women In Leadership Symposium

Chicago, IL – – On September 1, 2016 the Illinois Diversity Council will be hosting the Chicago Women in Leadership Symposium Hyatt Regency Chicago. This symposium is designed to educate and create dialogue that contributes to the improvement of diversity and inclusion in the workplace. The theme of this year's symposium is "Secure Yourself at the Table."

"The Women in Leadership Symposium gives women the opportunity to improve their leadership capabilities," said Dennis Kennedy, Founder & Chair of the National Diversity Council. "Our hope is that this event will encourage women to strive for success and advocate for the improvement of gender inclusion."

This half-day event will begin at 8:15 a.m. with registration, breakfast and networking. Attendees will also participate in moderated panel discussions covering a variety of topics, such as "The Courage to Lead," and "Developing Your Leadership Potential." The scheduled list of panelists will include a number of influential business executives from leading corporations in the Chicago area.

Registration for the Chicago Women in Leadership Symposium is currently ongoing and can be completed at Visit our website at www.wilsymposium.com/chicago. For more information, please contact Ashlyn Outler at ashlyn.outler@nationaldiversitycouncil.org.
