

October 26, 2016

News Release

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

California Diversity Council Shares Hiring Best Practices at Inaugural Los Angeles Veterans Summit

Los Angeles, CA – The California Diversity Council is proud to host the Inaugural Los Angeles Veterans Summit on November 10, 2016 at Paramount Pictures. This event will afford an opportunity for veterans and employers to learn best practices for hiring, transitioning, and retaining veterans in the civilian workforce.

“The National Diversity Council understands the importance of continued support for veterans as they transition from the military,” said Dennis Kennedy, Founder and Chair at the National Diversity Council. “This type of event offers support to veterans and employers in order to make the transition into the civilian workforce more comfortable.”

This half-day event will begin at 8:30 a.m. with registration and networking. Attendees will have the opportunity to participate in two panel discussions; one veterans focused panel and one employer focused panel. Discussions will cover an array of topics such as resume and interview tips, hiring strategies, and retention strategies. Attendees will also have the opportunity to share their thoughts during the question and answer sessions following each panel discussion.

Registration for the Los Angeles Veteran’s Summit is currently ongoing and can be completed at www.californiadiversitycouncil.org/laveteranssummit. For more information, please contact Jacob Tadesse at jacob.tadesse@nationaldiversitycouncil.org.

About the California Diversity Council

A non-profit organization committed to fostering a learning environment for organizations to grow in their knowledge of diversity. The council affords opportunities for organizations to share best practices and learn from top corporate leaders in the areas of diversity and inclusion.

More information about the California Diversity Council is available at www.californiadiversitycouncil.org.

Media Contact:

Dennis Kennedy
Founder & Chair
National Diversity Council
dennis.kennedy@nationaldiversitycouncil.org