FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Female Executives To Be Honored At 2015 Colorado Most Powerful and Influential Women's Breakfast

DENVER, CO - The Colorado Diversity Council will host its 2015 Women's Most Powerful and Influential Women's Breakfast on June 25, 2015 at the Ritz-Carlton, 1881 Curtis St, Denver, CO 80202, where female executives will be honored for their leadership excellence.

"We are excited and privileged to recognize a group of outstanding women who exemplify what it takes to succeed in the corporate world, while ensuring the success of their organizations in the global arena," said Dennis Kennedy, Founder & CEO of the National Diversity Council.

The event will open with an invitation to network with the vast range of attendees, allowing some of the local business professionals to make invaluable cross-industry contacts. Following the networking session, the most powerful female executives in Colorado will speak on their personal experiences and achievements.

After the remarks, eight female executives from a variety of organizations in the Denver area will be presented with the Most Powerful and Influential Women Award, which recognizes high-ranking female professionals in various industries who exhibit the tenacity it takes to excel in their fields of expertise.

The emcee for the breakfast will be Jessico Oh, Anchor and Reporter for 9News Denver.
